

Preparing College Audition Workshop

A 10-Week Program for Future Music Majors and Minors

Transform your passion for music into college admission and scholarship success! Whether you plan to major or minor in music, this workshop will prepare you to perform confidently, impress faculty, and stand out in the application process.

 100% of past participants have been accepted into college music programs

 Every student received scholarship offers

[Reserve My Spot]

Expert Instruction You Can Trust

This course is taught by John M. Seybert, Ph.D., an accomplished educator with years of experience as a college professor and music admissions specialist. Dr. Seybert has taught in nationally recognized secondary and post-secondary programs, guiding hundreds of students to successful college auditions and music careers.

Students benefit from both academic insight and real-world audition expertise — the perfect combination for college readiness.

Is This Workshop Right for You?

If you are a high school musician who:

- Plans to major or minor in music (performance, education, composition, or music technology)
- Wants to stand out in competitive auditions and present your best work
- Needs clear guidance choosing schools, repertoire, and application materials
- Hopes to earn scholarships and make music school more affordable

Then this workshop is designed for you.

Parents: We provide the structure, communication, and expert support that helps your student stay on track — and reduces stress during the college application season.

Our Proven OAR Model for College Audition Success

Display these three pillars in bold visual boxes or icons:

O — ORGANIZE

We help you design a smart, step-by-step audition plan:

- Select colleges and programs that fit your goals (major or minor)
- Choose audition repertoire that showcases your strengths
- Build a clear application and audition timeline
- Create a polished résumé and professional portfolio

A — ARTICULATE

Develop confidence and clarity in your presentation:

- Craft engaging essays and personal statements
- Prepare for interviews and faculty interactions
- Communicate your musical identity with professionalism and authenticity

R — REFINE

Elevate your performance to the next level:

- Receive detailed performance coaching and technical feedback
- Participate in mock auditions and interview simulations
- Learn how to project confidence and musical artistry on stage

What You'll Gain in 10 Weeks

-  Weekly small-group sessions and one-on-one coaching
-  Professional feedback from an experienced music professor
-  Guidance for both music majors and minors
-  Scholarship positioning and financial strategy support
-  A supportive, like-minded community of aspiring college musicians

“This program gave me the confidence and preparation I needed for every audition. I was accepted into all three of my top-choice music schools — with scholarships!”
— Emma S., Flute Student, Class of 2024

Why Students and Families Choose This Program

100% College Acceptance Rate for completing students

100% Scholarship Offers at accredited colleges and universities

10 Weeks from uncertainty to confident performance

Our students do not just audition — they excel, earning both admission and scholarships through focused preparation and expert mentorship.

17 Program Details

Duration	10 Weeks
Format	Hybrid – In-person and Online Options
Instructor	John M. Seybert, Ph.D. — K-12 Curriculum Leader/Teacher/College Professor, Music Admissions Specialist
Ideal For	High School Juniors & Seniors planning to Major or Minor in Music
Next Session Begins	February 2026/June 2026 and September 2026
Spots Available	Limited for Individualized Coaching

[Apply Now]

Common Questions

Do I need to know which schools I'll apply to?

No — we'll help you research, evaluate, and select programs that fit your goals.

Can this program help with both majors and minors?

Yes! We tailor the experience to meet your level of intended study.

Is this for vocalists, instrumentalists, or composers?

All are welcome — our methods apply to every musical discipline.

 Your College Journey Starts Here

Your audition is more than a performance — it's your introduction to the next chapter of your musical life.

Let us help you make it unforgettable.

[Join the Workshop Today!]

10 Weeks. Expert Coaching. Proven Results.